

5 Your computer has a bug in it. It keeps deleting the indefinite articles! Complete the sentences by filling in the blanks with un, une, or des.

1. DAVID A _____ RÈGLE, _____ CLASSEUR ET _____ TROUSSE.

2. IL ME FAUT _____ STYLO ET _____ CAHIER POUR L'ANGLAIS.

3. MARIÉ-HÉLÈNE A _____ FEUILLES DE PAPIER, _____ TAILLE-CRAYON ET _____ TROUSSE.

4. POUR LES MATHS, HENRI A _____ CALCULATRICE, _____ CRAYONS ET _____ GOMME.

14 Your friend is going to France as a foreign exchange student. She wrote this list of items she would like to buy when she arrives, but she can't remember the French words for the colors of the items. Complete her list below with the correct French forms of the colors in parentheses.

- |                               |                                  |
|-------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. des cahiers _____ (brown)  | 5. des classeurs _____ (white)   |
| 2. une trousse _____ (purple) | 6. un jean _____ (black)         |
| 3. des stylos _____ (blue)    | 7. des sweat-shirts _____ (grey) |
| 4. des baskets _____ (white)  | 8. une règle _____ (pink)        |

Position of adjectives

Have you noticed where adjectives usually appear in a French sentence?

Claire adore ces baskets blanches!

Je voudrais une trousse marron.

You place most adjectives, including colors, after the nouns they describe.

13 Pauline wrote her mother a note telling what she'd like from the store, but she wasn't very specific. Her mother wants more details. Make Pauline's list more descriptive by adding the correct forms of the adjectives in parentheses.

Je voudrais des baskets (1) _____ (noir), un short (2) _____ (noir), un tee-shirt (3) _____ (vert), un tee-shirt (4) _____ (rose), un jean (5) _____ (bleu), des stylos (6) _____ (bleu), des stylos (7) _____ (rouge), des troussees (8) _____ (gris) et un sac à dos (9) _____ (rouge).